Dear Parents/Carers

As you know, the All Saints school family is a rich tapestry of people from different cultures, backgrounds, ethnicities and faiths....and we celebrate that fact. We have 44 different languages spoken in our school and that makes us unique within Medway.

Our curriculum is full of significant figures from different cultures and countries and they span over many decades so that every child is able to relate to the teaching that takes place here.

This Friday, the 17th October, which also happens to be the last day of term, we are holding a cultural carnival day in school and this time the country of India has been chosen to be celebrated. The children will participate in all sorts of activities to mark the festival of Diwali and we ask that they come to school that day dressed in bright colourful clothes or traditional Indian items if they have them. Please do not buy anything new.

We have a dance workshop taking place in school where authentic choreographers will teach the children some classic moves and they will dress the children up in bright coloured clothing for this activity too.

In order to help cover the cost of the dance workshop we ask that children bring in a pound that morning and give it to their teacher when they get to class.

Term 1 has whizzed past in the blink of an eye and term 2 starts for the children again on Tuesday 28th October. Until then we thank all of you for your support, wish you all a happy cultural carnival day for Friday and hope you have a restful and safe week for half term spending time with loved ones and preparing for term 2.

Yours sincerely
