Tuesday 3rd February 2026

Dear Parents/Carers

At All Saints we are extremely proud of the cultural diversity that we have and the 47 spoken languages within our school walls and, throughout each year, we like nothing better than to celebrate this fact.

On Thursday 12th February – the penultimate day of this term, our infant children will be participating in activities that celebrate Chinese New Year and on Friday 13th February the last day of term, the juniors will be joining in the celebrations too.

Children are welcome to wear Chinese style clothing into school on their celebration day. If they do not have any Chinese style clothing they should just wear their uniform as usual.

Throughout their Chinese New Year celebration day the children will be participating in Chinese Art, Music, Dance and Storytelling so that they all get to expand their knowledge and understanding of the Chinese culture.

To help cover the cost of the workshop dancers on festival days we are asking that all children bring in a £1 on their day.

We thank you for your monetary support of these days, and wish you a happy half term holiday and remind you that school resumes again on Tuesday 24th February 2026.

Yours sincerely
