Dear Parents and Carers,

As we reach the end of an incredible academic year at All Saints School, I am writing to share some truly wonderful news with you all. We have just finalised our end-of-year academic assessments, and I am absolutely delighted to inform you that our children have achieved better than national expectations across all year groups: beating hundreds of schools with fewer children in much more affluent areas.

These wonderful results are a testament to the immense hard work, resilience, and dedication our pupils have shown in their learning. From reception, phonics, times tables tests and Y6 SATS our children have not only met but exceeded national and government targets.

Of course, these fantastic achievements would not have been possible without your support at home. Education is a partnership, and your encouragement at home—whether reading together every night, helping with weekly homework sheets, or simply ensuring they arrive at school in a frame of mind ready to learn—has played a vital role in this success.

My heartfelt thanks must go out to our exceptional school staff team. Their passion, hard work, and tireless commitment to nurturing every single child and providing the next steps for them have created a unique environment here where all of our pupils can truly arise and shine.

Well done all.

Just a couple of reminders to send out in this letter by popular request:-

- We have our whole school cultural carnival day tomorrow and the theme of our workshops this term is African dance – bright or cultural clothing please and food contributions but no nuts.
- We break up at normal time on Tuesday 21st July.
- The Y6 leavers church service is at 9.30 am on our final day followed by the clapping out parade at 2.30pm.
- School resumes on Thursday 3rd September at the usual time (for some).

And finally, before I retire, starting next Tuesday, I send our Y6s on to their new schools with pride and with love and I thank everybody in our All Saints family for the support and friendship shown to me over my 25 year tenure. I take thousands of happy memories with me as I move on to my new adventures and wish each and every one of you a successful, happy and prosperous life ahead.

Best of luck everybody- see you on the flip side!
