Progressive document- the more they can do the greater understanding they demonstrate	Christians remember Jesus' last week at Easter.	Easter is very important in the 'big story' of the Bible. Jesus showed that he was willing to forgive all people, even for putting him on the cross.	Christians see Holy Week as the culmination of Jesus' earthly life, leading to his death and resurrection.	Christians read the 'big story' of the Bible as pointing out the need for God to save people. This salvation includes the ongoing restoration of humans' relationship with God.
	Jesus' name means 'He saves'.	Christians believe Jesus builds a bridge between God and humans.	The various events of Holy Week, such as the Last Supper, were important in showing the disciples what Jesus came to earth to do.	The Gospels give accounts of Jesus' death and resurrection.
	Christians believe Jesus came to show God's love.	Christians believe Jesus rose from the dead, giving people hope of a new life.	Christians today trust that Jesus really did rise from the dead, and so is still alive today.	The New Testament says that Jesus' death was somehow 'for us'.
	Christians try to show love to others.		Christians remember and celebrate Jesus' last week, death and resurrection.	Christians interpret this in a variety of ways: for example, as a sacrifice for sin; as a victory over sin, death and the devil; paying the punishment as a substitute for everyone's sins; rescuing the lost and leading them to God; leading from darkness to light, from slavery to freedom.
				Christians remember Jesus' sacrifice through the service of Holy Communion (also called the Lord's Supper, the Eucharist or the Mass).
				Belief in Jesus' resurrection confirms to Christians that Jesus is the incarnate Son of God, but also that death is not the end.
				This belief gives Christians hope for life with God, starting now and continuing in a new life (heaven).

PEOPLE OF GOD	At the end of each age phase the children should be able to:

	See curriculum overview diagram for concepts studied in each Key Stage	See curriculum overview diagram for concepts studied in each Key Stage	The Old Testament tells the story of a particular group of people, the children of Israel — known as the People of God — and their relationship with God.	The Old Testament pieces together the story of the people of God. As their circumstances change (for example, from being nomads (Abraham, Jacob) to being city dwellers (David)), they have to learn new ways of following God.
			The People of God try to live in the way God wants, following his commands and worshipping him.	The story of Moses and the Exodus shows how God rescued his people from slavery in Egypt; Christians see this story as looking forward to how Jesus’ death and resurrection also rescue people from slavery to sin.
			They believe he promises to stay with them and Bible stories show how God keeps his promises.	Christians apply this idea to living today by trying to serve God and to bring freedom to others: for example, loving others, caring for them, bringing health, food, justice, and telling the story of Jesus.

	See curriculum overview diagram for concepts studied in each Key Stage	See curriculum overview diagram for concepts studied in each Key Stage	Christians believe that Jesus inaugurated the ‘Kingdom of God’ — i.e. Jesus’ whole life was a demonstration of his belief that God is king, not just in heaven but here and now. (‘Your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven’.)	Jesus told many parables about the Kingdom of God. These suggest that God’s rule has begun, through the life, teaching and example of Jesus, and subsequently through the lives of Christians who live in obedience to God.
			Christians believe Jesus is still alive, rules in their hearts and lives through the Holy Spirit, if they let him	The parables suggest that there will be a future Kingdom, where God’s reign will be complete.
			Christians believe that after Jesus returned to be with God the Father, he sent the Holy Spirit at Pentecost to help the Church to make Jesus’ invisible Kingdom visible by living lives that reflect the love of God.	The Kingdom is compared to a feast where all are invited to join in. Not everyone chooses to do so
			Christians celebrate Pentecost, as the beginning of the Church.	Many Christians try to extend the Kingdom of God by challenging unjust social structures in their locality and in the world.

Progressive document- the more they can do the greater understanding they demonstrate	Christians believe God came to Earth in human form as Jesus.	Christians believe that Jesus is God and that he was born as a baby in Bethlehem.	Christians believe Jesus is one of the three persons of the Trinity: God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit.	Jesus was Jewish.
	Christians believe Jesus came to show that all people are precious and special to God.	The Bible points out that his birth showed that he was extraordinary (for example, he is worshipped as a king, in Matthew) and that he came to bring good news (for example, to the poor, in Luke).	Christians believe the Father creates; he sends the Son who saves his people; the Son sends the Holy Spirit to his followers.	Christians believe Jesus is God in the flesh
		Christians celebrate Jesus’ birth, and Advent for Christians is a time for getting ready for Jesus’ coming.	Christians worship God as Trinity. It is a huge idea to grasp, and Christians have created art to help to express this belief.	They believe that his birth, life, death and resurrection were part of a longer plan by God to restore the relationship between humans and God.
			Christians believe the Holy Spirit is God’s power at work in the world and in their lives today, enabling them to follow Jesus	The Old Testament talks about a ‘rescuer’ or ‘anointed one’ — a messiah. Some texts talk about what this ‘messiah’ would be like Christians believe that Jesus fulfilled these expectations, and that he is the Messiah. (Jewish people do not think Jesus is the Messiah.

GOSPEL	At the end of each age phase the children should be able to:
	EYFS	Milestone A – End of Key stage 1	Milestone B – End of Lower Key stage 2	Milestone C– End of Upper Key stage 2
	Christians believe Jesus brings good news for all people.	Christians believe Jesus challenges everyone about how to live — he sets the example for loving God and your neighbour, putting others first.	Christians believe the good news is not just about setting an example for good behaviour and challenging bad behaviour: it is that Jesus offers a way to heal the damage done by human sin.	Christians believe Jesus brings good news for all people.
	For Christians, this good news includes being loved by God, and being forgiven for bad things.	Christians believe Jesus challenges people who pretend to be good (hypocrisy) and shows love and forgiveness to unlikely people.	Christians see that Jesus’ teachings and example cut across expectations — the Sermon on the Mount is an example of this, where Jesus’ values favour serving the weak and vulnerable, not making people comfortable.	For Christians, this good news includes being loved by God, and being forgiven for bad things.
	Christians believe Jesus is a friend to the poor and friendless.	Christians believe Jesus’ life shows what it means to love God (his Father) and love your neighbour.	Christians believe that Jesus’ good news not only transforms lives now, but also points toward a restored, transformed life in the future. (See Salvation and Kingdom of God).	Christians believe Jesus is a friend to the poor and friendless.
	Christians believe Jesus’ teachings make people think hard about how to live and show them the right way.	Christians try to be like Jesus — they want to know him better and better.	Christians believe that they should bring this good news to life in the world in different ways, within their church family, in their personal lives, with family, with their neighbours, in the local, national and global community.	Christians believe Jesus’ teachings make people think hard about how to live and show them the right way.

Progressive document- the more they can do the greater understanding they demonstrate	The word God is a name.	Christians believe in God, and that they find out about God in the Bible.	Christians believe God is Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Spirit (see Incarnation).	Christians believe God is omnipotent, omniscient and eternal, and that this means God is worth worshipping.
	Christians believe God is Creator of the universe	Christians believe God is loving, kind, fair and also Lord and King; and there are some stories that show this.	Jesus the Son is seen by Christians as revealing what God the Father is like. They believe he promises to stay with them and Bible stories show how God keeps his promises.	Christians believe God is both holy and loving, and Christians have to balance ideas of God being angered by sin and injustice (see Fall) but also being loving, forgiving, and full of grace.
	Christians believe God made our wonderful world and so we should look after it	Christians worship God and try to live in ways that please him.	Christians find that understanding God is challenging; people spend their whole lives learning more and more about God.	Christians believe God loves people so much that Jesus was born, lived, was crucified and rose again to show God's love.
			Christians really want to try to understand God better and so try to describe God using symbols, similes and metaphors, in song, story, poems and art.	Christians do not all agree about what God is like, but try to follow his path, as they see it in the Bible or through Church teaching.
				Christians believe getting to know God is like getting to know a person rather than learning information.

	The word God is a name.	God created the universe.	God the Creator cares for the creation, including human beings.	There is much debate and some controversy around the relationship between the accounts of creation in Genesis and contemporary scientific accounts.
	Christians believe God is Creator of the universe	The Earth and everything in it are important to God.	As human beings are part of God’s good creation, they do best when they listen to God	These debates and controversies relate to the purpose and interpretation of the texts. For example, does reading Genesis as a poetic account conflict with scientific accounts?
	Christians believe God made our wonderful world and so we should look after it	God has a unique relationship with human beings as their Creator and Sustainer	The Bible tells a story (in Genesis 3) about how humans spoiled their friendship with God (sometimes called ‘the Fall’).	There are many scientists throughout history and now who are Christians.
		Humans should care for the world because it belongs to God.	This means that humans cannot get close to God without God’s help.	The discoveries of science make Christians wonder even more about the power and majesty of the Creator.
